Reaching Underserved Communities With Technology

18 June 2018

Sao Paulo, Brazil employees worked with Caminhando, an organization that helps adults with disabilities. In addition to interacting with adults through fun activities, Lenovo gave five Lenovo laptops and a virtual reality set to bridge the technology gap to underserved populations and helping to enrich the lives of the adults who rely upon the center.

Download High Resolution