Make A Difference Week 2018

18 June 2018

Lenovo employees gave back to communities around the world again in 2018 through Make a Difference Week, our annual Global Week of Service during April. In North America, Lenovo worked with the National Academy Foundation (NAF) to make high school students future ready in the work place with mock interviews and career coaching.